ollege of the Canyons has been named a 2021 Equity Champion of Higher Education by The Campaign for College Opportunity for its exemplary work in awarding Associate Degrees for Transfer (ADT) to Latinx students.

The college received the recognition during a virtual celebration on Tuesday, Nov. 16.

The event drew approximately 300 attendees representing California's higher education leadership, elected officials, corporate sponsors, and civic and business leaders.

The Campaign for College Opportunity analyzed the percentage point gap of California community colleges, which identifies campuses that are excelling in awarding ADTs to Latinx students, relative to their campus-wide ADT conferral rates.

Start Your Journey at College of the Canyons!

Dr. Dianne G. Van Hook Chancellor

ooking to transfer to a four-year school or jump-start your career? Start your journey at College of the Canyons!

As College of the Canyons chancellor, it should come as no surprise that I am passionate about the California community college system and the opportunities it creates for people to learn anywhere and anytime!

And what makes California community colleges so special?

For starters, unlike other U.S. community colleges, California community colleges are open to everyone! Anyone in the community can have access to higher education or workforce training thanks to our affordable enrollment fees of just $46 per unit.

Whether you are looking to gain workforce training to become more competitive at your job or planning to transfer to a four-year college, we are here to help you reach your

Not only do we offer 96 associate degrees and 148 certificates, we also offer 31 Associate Degree for Transfer (ADT) programs in various subjects.

Unlike AA or AS degrees, ADTs provide students with guaranteed admission to a CSU or select private college if they earn an associate in arts transfer (AA-T) or associate in science transfer (AS-T) degree and meet the CSU minimum eligibility requirements.

Whether you are looking to gain workforce training to become more competitive at your job or transferring to a four-year college, we are here to help you reach your goals."

- DR. DIANNE G. VAN HOOK, CHANCELLOR

Over the past five years, the number of students earning ADT degrees increased by

As a leader in transfer rates, College of the Canyons has completely restructured its processes to reduce transfer-level completion in English and math by two semesters.

The percentage of new students who completed transfer-level courses in English and math during their first semester nearly tripled from 14 percent to 48 percent (2017

The college also saw a significant increase in the percentage of students completing transfer-level math and English in their first year.

In English and math, respectively, we saw an increase from 38 percent to 71 percent (2017 to 2019) and from 14 percent to 57 percent (2016 to 2019).

Why is this noteworthy? Completing lower-division math and English courses is often a barrier for many students.

Statewide, researchers have found that students spend as much as 2.5 semesters – the equivalent of almost one and a half years to complete remedial class sequences, which not only delays enrollment in upper-division college courses, but also delays their plans to transfer. By helping them get over this hurdle in their first year, they are more likely to transfer to a four-year university and achieve their educational goals.

We are proud of the strides we have made and continue working hard toward creating new pathways for student success.

If you are interested in learning more about how College of the Canyons can serve as a launch pad to help you reach your goals, please visit www.canyons.edu.

CHANCELLOR'S CIRCLE

Guests enjoyed dinner, conversation, and live music in the upper plaza, as well as guided tours of the recently completed building.

Grant to Support Anti-Racism

n partnership with the Community College Consortium for OER, College of the Canyons has received a second grant from the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation to expand and extend the Open for Anti-Racism (OFAR) program supporting faculty in California Community Colleges.

The two-year $900,000 grant will extend the OFAR program over two semesters, enabling more faculty members to plan, strategize, and engage with more students.

"The college's leadership of this program reflects our leadership in the OER space and our commitment to promoting diversity, equity, inclusion and antiracism in support of our community and students," said James Glapa-Grossklag, dean of learning resources at the college and co-lead of the OFAR program.

The college has long been a leader in using open educational resources (OER) - free, openly licensed textbooks – to reduce costs for students. In the spring 2021 semester, 26 percent of all college classes used OER instead of costlier textbooks.

The OFAR program, first piloted in spring 2021, sought to demonstrate how faculty could use OER and open pedagogy to make their instructional materials and teaching practices anti-racist.

Participating faculty learned about anti-racism, open educational resources, and open pedagogy in facilitated online course. They then crafted an action plan to make a concrete change in a class they were teaching.

Ninety percent of first-year faculty participants indicated that their teaching practice improved. Faculty employed three key strategies: incorporating student voices to include non-mainstream perspectives and points of view; co-creating learning materials with students; integrating inclusive media to illustrate and explicitly discuss racism, oppression, privilege, and healing.

Due to these strategies, over 80 percent of students reported feeling more active or engaged in the OFAR class than in their other classes. Factors identified included faculty's effort to engage students in the learning process, the specific content covered, or direct and specific interactions with other students as a required part of class.

Faculty are invited to apply as college teams in order to maximize alignment of their antiracist class implementations with the strategic goals of their institutions.

College Ranked 19th in Nation for Hispanics

ranked nationally No. 19 in The Hispanic Outlook on Education magazine for enrolling the largest number of Hispanic students.

The magazine rankings for the Top 100 Community Colleges for Hispanics were based from the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) data for community colleges with the highest number of Hispanic students enrolled during Fall 2019 and Spring 2020.

According to the data, the college had a Hispanic population of 15,528 students, totaling 47 percent of the total student enrollment, which was 32,974 in the year 2019-20.

"One of the many things that makes College of the Canyons stand out is the rich diversity of our student body," said College of the Canyons Chancellor Dr. Dianne G. Van Hook. "We are proud to be recognized once again for being an institution that continues to expand our ability to serve the needs of our Hispanic students as they work hard to pursue their academic goals.'

College data shows that over a five-year period, there was a 163 percent increase in the number of Hispanic students earning 'We are proud to be recognized once again for being an institution that continues to expand our ability to serve the needs of our Hispanic students as they work hard to pursue their academic goals."

an Associate's Degree for Transfer (ADT). Students who earn an ADT are guaranteed vear of study. admission to a California State University.

Many Hispanic students attending COC have benefited from the college's innovative programs, such as the Canyons Promise program, which gives incoming students the tools and resources they need to transition smoothly into college life.

Of the 4,301 students the program has served since its launch in 2017, 53 percent of students self-identified as Hispanic.

The program, originally known as First-Year Promise, provides increased opportunities for new full-time college students to achieve their educational goals by waiving tuition and fees during their first

Students who maintain the program's requirements may have their Canyons Promise benefits extended to their second Accepted students enroll in a one-year sequence of courses with priority registration, preceded by a week-long summer boot camp to learn skills needed to be a successful college student.

Canyons Promise courses are offered with the benefits of free Open Educational Resources to use as textbooks, peer mentors, and other learning community elements. To ensure students remain on track, ongoing counseling and student support is also offered.

Additionally, Canyons Promise students receive a parking pass or city bus

The Hispanic Outlook on Education magazine's annual ranking is based on total student enrollment, the percentage of Hispanic students in attendance, twoyear schools awarding the most associate degrees to Hispanic students, and the percentage of associate degrees to Hispanic students by two-year schools.
