

Certificate of Specialization: Basic Proficiency in German

Prepares students for communicating in German through the four skills: reading, writing, listening, and speaking at the basic (high-novice) level per the American Council of the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) guidelines. This certificate will also provide fundamental cultural knowledge following the 3P's (Products, Practices and Perspectives) cultural framework.

Certificate Student Learning Outcome:

Students will be able to:

- Communicate through reading, writing, speaking and listening in German at the basic (high-novice) level as indicated by the ACTFL guidelines.

- Demonstrate fundamental knowledge of the culture of the German language.

Program Requirements:

Units Required: 10

GERMAN-101	Elementary German I	Units: 5.0
GERMAN-102	Elementary German II	5.0