

CANYONS PROMISE

COLLEGE OF THE CANYONS

Canyons Promise provides incoming first-time college students the opportunity to attend College of the Canyons with tuition paid for their first two years (fall and spring semesters only). The program is exclusively for first-time college students who enroll full-time. The program provides students with financial support, high-touch academic/counseling support, and peer support to increase student success.

Program Benefits

- Enrollment and student fees paid for fall and spring semesters for two years
- Great access to program-specific counselors for counseling appointments
- Priority registration for courses on their education plan for fall and spring semesters
- Parking permit or bus pass for fall and spring semesters
- Career and academic major guidance
- Student support resources to promote success tailored to each student

 Students must maintain program requirements to receive benefits/support from year one to year two.*
