Agenda Item Title: Teen Safe Driving with Hello Auto Group

Background: Hello Auto Group reached out to the College in hopes of having a collaboration for an event on Teen Safe Driving. The e-mail is copied below.

My name is Jessica, and I am the Giving Coordinator at Hello Auto Group. I was referred to you by Officer Joshua Greengard from CHP. I am reaching out to discuss a collaboration that could benefit the community. Hello Auto Group takes immense pride in actively participating in the Santa Clarita community. With three car dealerships under our banner, we believe in giving back to the community that we live and work in.

We are reaching out because we would love to partner with the College of the Canyons for a Teen Safe Driving Event to educate young drivers about safe driving practices. Our vision for this event involves a large parking lot, allowing us to demonstrate various driving scenarios and safety techniques. Additionally, we are seeking a suitable classroom space nearby to emphasize the importance of responsible driving habits, which Offer Greengard himself will teach.

Considering the College of the Canyons' space, we instantly thought your location was an ideal partner for this event. The facilities and resources available at COC align perfectly with our event's needs.

A partnership between Hello Auto Group and College of the Canyons could create a powerful impact on the young drivers in our community.

I would be grateful to further discuss this potential collaboration at your earliest convenience. Your guidance and insights would be invaluable in shaping this event into a meaningful experience for all involved.

Thank you for your time. I eagerly await your response and the chance to explore this opportunity together.
