Item Number: 3.1

Agenda Item Title: Approval of Club – COC Red Cross Club

Background: College of the Canyons students will service their community's needs through service and leadership. We will help prevent and alleviate human suffering in the face of emergencies within our community and around the world by mobilizing the power of volunteers and the generosity of donors. The American Red Cross, through its strong network of volunteers, donors and partners, is always there in times of need. We strive to collectively foster initiative and promote opportunities for our members to make a difference.

Agenda Item Title: Approval of Club – Grace on Campus

Background: Grace on Campus exists to exalt God, encourage and edify believers, and evangelize the lost. As members of the Grace on Campus Club our mission is to provide an avenue through which believers on campus can connect with other believers, identify areas and ways we can be purposefully involved in campus life and the lives of fellow students, and encourage one another to live missionally on COC's campus.
